

I DIG ARCHAEOLOGY!

Dear parent or caregiver,

I am writing to request your permission for photographs of your child to be taken during the I Dig Archaeology! education program. If photographs are taken, this would be for the purpose of educating students and teachers about the program, for online publication on the I Dig Archaeology! website, or in the print publication of future promotional material for the program. The use of photographs would be at the discretion of the program director and may be used on more than one occasion, for a variety of purposes. No names will ever be used with the photographs.

If you sign the attached form it means that you agree to the following:

1. I Dig Archaeology! is able to publish photographs of your child as many times as it requires in the ways mentioned above (no names).
2. Your child's photograph may be reproduced either in colour or in black and white.
3. I Dig Archaeology! will not use your child's photograph for any purpose other than the ways mentioned above.
4. Any photographs taken will be kept for no longer than is necessary for the above-mentioned purposes and will be stored and disposed of securely.
5. Whilst every effort will be made to protect the identity of your child, I Dig Archaeology! cannot guarantee that your child will not be able to be identified from the photograph.

If you agree to permit I Dig Archaeology! to take photographs of your child, and to publish photographs of your child in the manner detailed above, please complete the consent form and return it with the incursion permission form.

Kind regards,

Melissa Sorial
